Winkler shall report to Employer's Board of Directors. The Board of Directors shall retain and have the responsibility to formulate and adopt the policies of Employer and make such determinations and perform such acts as required of it by law. Winkler shall be the chief administrative officer of Employer, and shall be responsible for the selection, placement, organization, transfer and discharge of Employer's personnel (subject to the Board's employee grievance procedures), and, with the assistance of the Employer's personnel, Winkler shall administer the District and its business affairs and carry out the policies and determinations of the Board. Winkler agrees to devote his full-time skill, labor and attention to his duties as General Manager and not to engage in any outside activities that would prevent him from carrying out the duties of General Manager. Winkler and the Board of Directors agree to not interfere with or usurp the duties and responsibilities of the other. The members of the Board, individually and collectively, will promptly refer all criticisms, complaints and suggestions to the attention of Winkler for action, study and recommendations, as appropriate. Winkler shall satisfactorily meet written performance standards mutually agreed to by and between the Board of Directors and Winkler for each fiscal year. The parties shall establish such written performance standards prior to the commencement of the fiscal year for which they apply.

c. Expenses. Within limits established by the Board of Directors from time to time, Winkler is authorized to incur reasonable expenses on behalf of Employer in promoting the goals and objectives of the District, including reasonable expenses for business entertainment, business travel, and similar items. Employer will reimburse Winkler for all such reasonable expenses upon presentation to the Board of Directors by Winkler, from time to time, of an itemized account and satisfactory proof of such expenditures. Upon termination of employment, Winkler authorizes Employer to deduct from any amounts due Winkler the reasonable value of Employer property not returned to Employer such as cell phones, books, materials and computer equipment, as well as any debt on Employer credit cards or accounts for expenses which have been reimbursed to Winkler but not paid by Winkler to the creditor.

3. BENEFITS.

In addition to the compensation set forth in Section 2, Winkler shall be entitled, during the term of employment under this Agreement, to participate in the benefits offered to other employees of Employer, subject to all eligibility requirements, qualifications and conditions of such benefit plans. Benefits to which Winkler may be entitled include, but are not limited to, group insurance, sick leave, vacation (13 days of annual leave/vacation in 2007) and retirement plan benefits. This Agreement consists of severable and independent undertakings; therefore the invalidity or unenforceability of any part or parts thereof shall not render any other part or parts invalid or unenforceable. Any waiver by Employer of any part of this Agreement shall not be construed as Employer's waiver of any other parts of this Agreement, or as a waiver of Employer's right to subsequently enforce the same part of this Agreement. Only a written instrument duly executed by Winkler and an authorized representative of the District may modify this Agreement.
