Andy Bohnenkamp, District Conservationist

Staffing Update:

I am happy to announce that we have a job opening for a Soil Conservationist Direct Hire position in the Tekamah Field Office. This is a level GS 5 through 9 position with a salary range from $35,265 up to $69,462 depending on qualifications. This position will support all technical and conservation planning activities in the Tekamah FO and within the PMRNRD area. This is a great opportunity for a recent college graduate or someone looking for an excellent starting career with NRCS as a conservationist. This is an extremely important opening to fill, we currently have three Field Offices in the NRD, Tekamah being one of them, with only 1 NRCS employee present. This is a unique opportunity to hire someone who will hopefully be a part of the future of the NRCS team here in Papio for many years to come. Please pass along this great opportunity to your peers and colleagues and if you have any questions or potential candidates please reach out to me via email andrew.bohnenkamp@usda.gov or office phone: (402) 426-2625 Ext 102. The announcement for this opening will close on USAjobs.gov on July 15, 2021 so there's plenty of time to spread the word!
