Proposals Received by: July 31, 2009

The Papio-Missouri River Natural Resources District (PMRNRD) is requesting proposals for professional engineering services necessary to plan, permit, design and construct a flood control structure in the Papillion Creek watershed near 168th and Fort Street in Omaha, Douglas County, Nebraska (see attached map).

A previous report titled “Dam Site 15A Revised Conceptual Design Evaluation” completed in May 2007 by HDR Engineering, Inc. is available electronically by request. This report provides conceptual design elements as well as preliminary hydrology and hydraulics for the DS 15A project. Also included in the report is a conceptual Master Plan prepared by BCDM. The scope of work for this project will include a transportation/utilities plan, a recreation plan, and a community-based watershed management plan.

If interested, the following information should be submitted with your proposal in a form of your choosing not to exceed fifty (50) pages:

1. Firm name, address, telephone number and email contact information
2. Year your firm was established and any previous firm names
3. Types of services for which your firm is qualified
